

MEMORANDUM FOR:

DDO/EPDS

SITY

STAT
STAT

peggy - Do you think you cd have someone take a quick look at this & suggest some possible comments for Donn McMahon. We shd probably shoot for 26 March to get them back on time.

Thank,

Donn
30 March 1982

ional War College has conventional Warfare:

STAT

FORM 101 USE PREVIOUS EDITIONS

be greatly appreciated. The enclosed draft copy, with a view towards suggesting additions, corrections and deletions which would strengthen the study, and improve its desired impact on U.S. Government policy decision-makers.

In the interest of producing the best possible examination of this sensitive subject, and one which is relevant to policymakers, we believe your review would be most valuable. May we please have your comments by 1 April in order to meet our deadlines.

To facilitate distribution and ease the reading burden for you, we have not included the appendices, some of them classified, which have provided a comparative perspective for the formulation of our study. These appendices will naturally be included in the finished study sent to you later.

Your assistance will be greatly appreciated, particularly as we understand the heavy competition for your time. In debt for the assistance you have already extended to us, I remain,

Yours truly,

W. L. Barrows

WALTER L. BARROWS
Project Chairman

Enclosure
as

Thanks,

Dick Kinsman

NATIONAL DEFENSE UNIVERSITY

NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20319

REPLY TO ATTENTION OF:

Mr. John McMahon
Executive Director

Dear Sir:

As you know, our research group at The National War College has undertaken a strategic study entitled, "Unconventional Warfare: A Legitimate Tool of Foreign Policy."

In view of your interest and experience in this area, we would be greatly assisted by your critical review, if possible, of the enclosed draft copy, with a view towards suggesting additions, corrections and deletions which would strengthen the study, and improve its desired impact on U.S. Government policy decision-makers.

In the interest of producing the best possible examination of this sensitive subject, and one which is relevant to policymakers, we believe your review would be most valuable. May we please have your comments by 1 April in order to meet our deadlines.

To facilitate distribution and ease the reading burden for you, we have not included the appendices, some of them classified, which have provided a comparative perspective for the formulation of our study. These appendices will naturally be included in the finished study sent to you later.

Your assistance will be greatly appreciated, particularly as we understand the heavy competition for your time. In debt for the assistance you have already extended to us, I remain,

Yours truly,

WALTER L. BARROWS
Project Chairman

Enclosure
as

Thanks,

693-8108